LV 183-NEW

One [redacted] Las Vegas, Nevada, advised on 12/19/74, that he had been terminated [redacted] at the Hacienda Hotel inasmuch as he refused to take part in the [redacted] that was taking place at the Hacienda Hotel. [redacted] previously worked at the Stardust Hotel having been sent to the Hacienda in August, 1974.

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted]
[redacted] Inasmuch as the Stardust Hotel was to be the buyer for each of the hotels in the Argent Corporation, [redacted] was required to sign for supplies billed to the Hacienda which were constantly shorted. [redacted] could give no direct information and will be reinterviewed by Las Vegas.

b6
b7D

On 1/22/75, [redacted] who owned stock in the Hacienda Hotel, and was [redacted] the Hacienda Hotel, was elevated to an executive in the middle of December, 1974, of the Hacienda and subsequently terminated [redacted]. [redacted] presently with his attorney is negotiating [redacted] and others to have them buy-out his contract which had three years to run. [redacted] stated that currently a financial settlement has been reached.

b6
b7C

On 12/6/74, and 12/7/74, for a period of approximately 30 hours, ROSENTHAL sent a number of his own people from the Stardust Hotel to "evaluate" the Hacienda operation. Without prior indication, [redacted] a very derogatory and what he considers libelous letter written by ROSENTHAL. Copies of this letter were furnished to the Nevada Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission. The letter from ROSENTHAL indicates that [redacted] was incompetent and not the type of individual that Argent Corporation was looking for to retain in their organization. [redacted] emphatically stated that he wanted this letter rescinded clearly in order to re-establish his reputation in the Nevada gaming industry in which he has been actively participating for the past 28 years.

b6

LV 183-NEW

When [redacted] became incensed in the letter, he contacted the Nevada Gaming Commission (NGC), and there is currently a full administrative investigation being conducted by the Nevada Gaming Control Board (NGCB), the investigative body of the NGC. In addition, the NGC is currently holding hearings in Carson City, Nevada, regarding ROSENTHAL's letter.

b6
b7C

On [redacted] with counsel went to Carson City, Nevada, to appear before the NGC and met [redacted] in the hallway. [redacted] asked [redacted] to withdraw his complaint and things could be straightened out. [redacted] stated he made no complaint but upon receipt of the letter by the NGC, the NGC instituted its own investigation. At that time, [redacted] accused [redacted] of making "all of the information" available to the Federal Strike Force, which [redacted] denied.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that [redacted] at one time was given an opportunity to go into the Saratoga Development Corporation by [redacted] San Diego, California. Within the past month or so, [redacted] reportedly has written a memo [redacted] stating that [redacted] can no longer contribute to Argent Corporation and was being asked to step down. [redacted] reportedly became highly incensed concerning the way his former protege is now treating him. [redacted] according to [redacted] has in the past hired a number of professional football players among them JOHN HADL formerly of the Los Angeles Rams, now with another professional football team. [redacted] stated that one of the reasons HADL had to leave the Los Angeles and San Diego, California, areas was because PETE ROSELLE called HADL before him to answer to the inferences and allegations appearing in the magazine, "Overdrive," sometime in the Summer, 1974. [redacted] stated this was not the only reason HADL left the Los Angeles Rams but the bad publicity was certainly a cause of it.

b6

[redacted] stated that at no time did he receive a threat from anyone nor was he asked to accept percentages of any suppliers to the Hacienda as a kickback to the Hacienda Hotel. [redacted] stated, however, that it was quite apparent to him that

b6

LV 183-NEW

supplier kickbacks were started because of the fact that suppliers who had been with the Hacienda Hotel for long periods of time were suddenly discontinued. This resulted in the Stardust Hotel being the sole buyer for each of the hotels owned by Argent. He understands but does not know definitely that each of the suppliers were chosen by ROSENTHAL and a large number of suppliers were no longer doing business with the Stardust Hotel at his direction.

b6
b7D

[redacted] stated in addition that [redacted] [redacted] the Stardust Hotel in Las Vegas, was elevated to an executive position and summarily fired [redacted] at ROSENTHAL's direction. [redacted] stated that [redacted] reportedly then [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] promised full cooperation and was preparing a list of suppliers to the Hacienda Hotel who were discontinued together with the list of Stardust employees who, at the direction of ROSENTHAL, conducted the survey at the Hacienda Hotel, which resulted in [redacted] being terminated.

b6

In addition, [redacted] stated he was currently involved in the NGC hearings and was subpoenaing a large number of former employees at the Hacienda to testify on his behalf.

Presently there is limited informant information wherein ANTHONY JOHN SPILOTRO (LCN, Chicago) currently residing in Las Vegas, is acting as ROSENTHAL's "body guard" and may possibly be involved with ROSENTHAL in any kickbacks if they exist.

b6

[redacted] stated that as soon as the NGC hearings are over, he would be available for re-interview at which time he would furnish additional information.

He related the fact that a "rumor" had been brought to his attention that ROSENTHAL at one time while living in Miami, Florida, was trying to "muscle in" into the laundry and dry cleaning business. [redacted] could not furnish the

b6

LV 183-NEW

specific instance or the individuals involved with the exception of ROSENTHAL wherein owner of a dry cleaning establishment refused to "pay protection" and as a result, a building or store next to the dry cleaning establishment was bombed early one morning in Miami, Florida. The owner of this establishment reportedly called ROSENTHAL and personally told him that he, the owner, was not too worried and in addition told ROSENTHAL that ROSENTHAL had had the wrong store bombed. ROSENTHAL then reportedly said to the effect that exactly "where was the dry cleaning establishment located" and the owner told him. The next night in the early morning hours the dry cleaning establishment was bombed and completely destroyed.

As mentioned in Las Vegas airtel to the Bureau dated 1/27/75, there is an all out effort by the "Chicago LCN" to put ROSENTHAL in complete control of Argent. Informant then discussed information obtained by him concerning LARRY ROSENTHAL who this informant has known well for a number of years. He stated ROSENTHAL has been put in charge of the Argent Corporation by the LCN in Chicago to make huge proceeds from the Las Vegas casinos. These proceeds will come mostly from two sources, skimming and kickbacks from suppliers of food, linens, and other miscellaneous items.

At the present time these supplies are being purchased by the Argent Corporation from a select group of wholesalers. These wholesalers already know what is expected of them and informant stated the only way he sees that the suppliers can keep matters straight is to work from two sets of books.

As an explanation of a way it may work with meat, the wholesaler may charge the Stardust casino for top grade meat whereas they actually receive a second grade. The excess money made by the wholesaler will be returned all or in part to the Argent Corporation by some prearranged plan. The same deal could be worked out with linen suppliers and others. In all cases the books of the Argent Corporation will always be correct, the wholesalers will have to juggle his accounts or keep two sets of books to figure out where he stands and how much to kickback.

In discussing the meat wholesalers, informant stated they represent a lucrative source where both the casinos and the wholesalers can make money. The wholesalers will make money on the volume of meat sold the casinos and Argent Corporation will also profit by some amounts that is returned.

Meat is supplied to these casinos from various sources including the Chicago Stock Yard Packing Company owned [redacted]

JECT: HACIENDA HOTEL COMPREHENSIVE REPORT - Cover Memorandum

I have reviewed the attached comprehensive report on the Hacienda Hotel prepared by the special unit lead by [redacted] b6 b7C the Stardust Hotel and [redacted] who formerly has worked in virtually every responsible position within the Stardust Casino. In addition to having reviewed the statements prepared by the entire unit, I have personally spoken with each and every man on this special assignment. Furthermore, on several occasions prior to development of this unit, I personally made on-sight inspections of the Hacienda Hotel and Casino, and have subsequently been in contact with [redacted] other personnel currently under employment at the Hacienda. Consequently, I feel a great responsibility to officially advise you of my conclusions.

As the Executive Consultant to the President and Chairman of the Board of the Argent Corporation, it is with profound regret that I must relate to you a situation that in my professional opinion, management at the Hacienda Hotel and Casino have violated virtually every standard of acceptance set forth by the Nevada State Gaming Control Board and the State Gaming Commission. IRS guidelines on marker procedures were violated on a daily basis to say the very least. Internal controls were a mockery of respectability. There was absolutely no tangible or visible evidence of judicial casino management, leadership, responsibility or technical know-how. Adherence to regulations, proper conduct, or the slightest of gaming sophistication was void beyond description.

I hesitate not, however regrettably that in my most sincere opinion after having absorbed and been privileged to gather this information from nearly twenty different individuals, each and every one of them highly qualified in their respective fields and beyond the slightest reproach, that your [redacted] b6 b7C and his closely-knit subordinates, particularly at the Shift Manager level, displayed in my opinion an attitude of non-performance for either knowing-not or caring-not at very best in respect to the intolerable conditions that have been documented within the following report.

In clear view of the conditions that have been described, I find it inconceivable that any reasonable and responsible individual or group would have any choice other than to conclude that management has been irresponsible, ineffective, careless and totally incompetent. Most certainly I would expect that a few individuals, some possibly still under your employment will take exception to our findings,

In closing, I would like to offer a slightly brighter side to the recent progress at the Hacienda Hotel and Casino. I can assure you unequivocally that your current [redacted] other members of his staff have made a tremendous impact on the type of Class A management that the Argent Corporation deemed so necessary by its own standards. They have corrected or are now in the process of correcting each and every violation that is obstructing our final goal.

Rest assured that we have turned the tide in a direction now serving in the best interest of the Argent Corporation, the industry and the State of Nevada.

Respectfully,

It is noted that FRANK ROSENTHAL's memorandum went to [redacted] Gaming Control Board, Las Vegas, Nevada, [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] submitted [redacted] to the board members of the NGCB a review of the memorandum relating to the internal review of the Hacienda Casino operations. The observation was made that there were very few procedures found to be in violation of NGCB regulations and were found to be minor violations or usually only lack of internal control. [redacted] conclusion was in answer to the specific charges made by [redacted] Mr. ROSENTHAL that his "stupidity, incompetency, and corruption" and violation of "virtually every standard of acceptance set forth by the Nevada State Gaming Control Board" were in the least exaggerated and possibly even unwarranted. In this memorandum, [redacted] set forth internal control and violation letters that were sent to the Stardust Hotel-Casino after a review of its operation. [redacted] stated in his memorandum that the matters mentioned in the Stardust letters were of a far more serious nature than those referred to in the "Hacienda Memorandums".

b6
b7C

[redacted] further stated that it was obvious to him that this was a "hatchet job" by ROSENTHAL with the back [redacted] on employees at the Hacienda Hotel.

b6
b7C

[redacted] further advised [redacted] that the "hatchet jobs" conducted at ROSENTHAL's direction against employees at the Fremont Hotel-Casino, and thereafter of the Stardust Hotel-Casino employees, together with ROSENTHAL's "documentation" was not immediately available [redacted]

DETAILS:

At Las Vegas, Nevada

Information was received by the FBI Office in Las Vegas, Nevada, through public source material that FRANK ROSENTHAL was made executive consultant to the president and chairman of the board of the Argent Corporation on October 22, 1974.

[REDACTED] the board of Argent Corporation. ROSENTHAL's position is such that he has the responsibility of overseeing the casino and hotel operations of the Hacienda Hotel-Casino, the Stardust Hotel-Casino, and the Fremont Hotel-Casino, together with the casino operations leased by Argent Corporation at the Marina Hotel-Casino.

b7C

This investigation was instituted to ascertain if information obtained through various sources are true in that ROSENTHAL reportedly is receiving "kickbacks" for various purveyors of food, liquor, and other suppliers to the various hotels operated by the Argent Corporation are substantive in fact, in violation of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) statute.

Public source information reflected that [REDACTED] terminated his employment [REDACTED] of the Stardust Hotel-Casino, effective December 31, 1974.

b6
b7C

On [REDACTED] Las Vegas, Nevada, advised Agents of the FBI Office in Las Vegas that he had been terminated [REDACTED] at the Hacienda Hotel. According to [REDACTED] the reason he was terminated was because he refused to take part in the [REDACTED] that was taking place at the Hacienda Hotel. [REDACTED] previously worked at the Stardust Hotel and had been sent to work at the Hacienda Hotel in August, 1974. [REDACTED] related that a number of methods were used where food and supplies were being diverted from the Hacienda for unknown reasons. The Stardust Hotel was the buyer for Argent Corporation and as such supplied food, beverage, and other supplies to each of the hotels.

b6
b7C

LV 183-40

through the Stardust facilities. [redacted] on numerous occasions was required to sign for supplies billed to the Hacienda Hotel, which were constantly shorted when compared to the receipt he had to sign with the actual count delivered to him. [redacted] could not give any more specific information.

b6
b7C

On January 22, 1975, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that he owned stock in the Hacienda Hotel and was [redacted] the Hacienda Hotel-Casino for many years. He was elevated to an executive [redacted]

b6

[redacted] Up until that time, that is when he was elevated [redacted] he had been led to believe he would be a part of the growth in Argent Corporation. Thereafter [redacted] attorney has been conducting negotiations [redacted] and others to buy out his, [redacted] contract which had three years to run at the time of his termination.

[redacted] continued that on December 6 and 7, 1974, for a period of approximately 30 hours, FRANK ROSENTHAL sent a number of employees from the Stardust Hotel-Casino to "evaluate" the Hacienda operation. [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] continued that without prior notification or indication, [redacted] received an extremely derogatory letter which he considers to be libelous in nature, which was written by ROSENTHAL. [redacted] stated that ROSENTHAL's conclusion in the letter, copies of which were furnished to the Nevada Gaming Control Board (NGCB) and the Nevada Gaming Commission, indicated that [redacted] was incompetent and not the kind of individual the Argent Corporation was looking for to retain in their organization. [redacted] emphatically stated on a number of occasions during the interview that ROSENTHAL's letter was such that he wanted the contents to be resended. This was to clearly re-establish his reputation in the Nevada Gaming Industry in which he has been actively participating for the past 28 years.

LV 183-40

[redacted] continued that he became so incensed with the letter received from ROSENTHAL that he contacted the Nevada Gaming Commission requesting a full administrative investigation by the NGCB into the allegations contained in ROSENTHAL's letter.

b6
b7C

On January 17, 1975, [redacted] with his attorney, went to Carson City, Nevada, to appear before the Nevada Gaming Commission and met [redacted] in the hallway while there. [redacted] asked [redacted] to withdraw his complaint and matters could be straightened out. [redacted] stated he told [redacted] that upon receipt of ROSENTHAL's letter by the Nevada Gaming Commission, the Nevada Gaming Commission instituted its own investigation. [redacted] then accused [redacted] of making all of the information available to the "Federal Strike Force". [redacted] denied this [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] continued that [redacted] at one time was given an opportunity to go into the Saratoga Development Corporation by [redacted] San Diego, California. [redacted] has heard rumors that within the past month or so [redacted] reportedly wrote a memorandum [redacted] stating that [redacted] could no longer contribute to the growth of the Argent Corporation and was being asked to step down. [redacted] reportedly became highly incensed regarding the manner in which his former protege, [redacted] is now threatening [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that [redacted] has in the past hired a number of professional football players among them, JOHN HADL, former player of the Los Angeles Rams. [redacted] stated that one of the reasons HADL had to leave the Los Angeles and San Diego, California area was because PETE ROSELLE called HADL before him to answer to the inferences and allegations appearing in the magazine, "Overdrive" during the Summer of 1974. [redacted] stated this was not the only reason HADL left the Los Angeles Rams, but in his opinion the bad publicity received by HADL was a contributing factor.

b6

b6
b7C

to the Hacienda Hotel as a "kickback" to do business with the Hacienda Hotel.

[redacted] stated that it was quite apparent to him that supplier "kickbacks" were started because of the fact that suppliers who had been doing business with the Hacienda for long periods of time were suddenly discontinued. The end result of this was that the Stardust Hotel-Casino became the sole buyer for each of the hotels owned by the Argent Corporation. [redacted] stated he understands but does not know definitely that each of the suppliers were chosen by ROSENTHAL who are now currently supplying food and beverage goods and services to the Stardust Hotel. A large number of these suppliers were no longer doing business with the Stardust Hotel-Casino at ROSENTHAL's direction.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he had heard information that [redacted] the Stardust Hotel-Casino in Las Vegas was elevated to a higher executive position and then summarily fired [redacted] at ROSENTHAL's direction. According to rumors that [redacted] had heard.

b6
b7D

[redacted] stated he was currently involved in the Nevada Gaming Commission hearings and through his attorney, was subpoenaing a large number of former employees at the Hacienda Hotel-Casino to testify on [redacted] behalf.

b6
b7C

[redacted] continued that a "rumor" had been brought to his attention that FRANK ROSENTHAL at one time, while living in Miami, Florida, had attempted to "muscle in"

into the laundry and dry-cleaning business. According to this rumor, the owner of the dry-cleaning establishment refused to "pay protection", and as a result a building or store next to the dry-cleaning establishment was bombed early one morning in Miami, Florida. The owner of the establishment reportedly called ROSENTHAL and told ROSENTHAL that he was not to worry and also told ROSENTHAL that ROSENTHAL had had the wrong store bombed. ROSENTHAL then allegedly told the caller that he wanted to know "where was the dry-cleaning establishment located", and the owner told him. In the early morning hours of the next day, the dry-cleaning establishment was bombed and completely destroyed.

The Miami Office advised on February 20, 1975, that the Dade County Public Safety Department, Bomb Squad, had investigated the bombing which occurred at the Hamilton Realty in Miami, Florida on January 24, 1967.

b6
b7C

The Hamilton Realty, Incorporated, [redacted]

No positive evidence was developed linking ROSENTHAL to the bombing and the Hamilton Realty, Incorporated, continues in business to this day.

On February 6, 1975, [redacted] advised that a hearing was held in Carson City, Nevada, at the NGCB from January 22 through 24, 1975. As a result of all the witnesses appearing at the NGCB hearing, the NGCB ruled that all information submitted by ROSENTHAL [redacted] was completely without basis in fact or foundation.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he, upon advice of his counsel, [redacted] an attorney in Las Vegas, Nevada, could not discuss the information brought before the NGCB. [redacted] was advised that this was his right and no further inquiry would be made by SA [redacted] concerning the information.

b6
b7C

On February 25, 1975, [redacted] was contacted by SA [redacted] wherein he stated that no information concerning any allegations regarding ROSENTHAL's alleged "kickback" activities had come to his attention.

b6
b7C

LV 183-40

Efforts to locate [redacted] for interview concerning the fact that he may possibly have some information regarding ROSENTHAL's alleged "kickback" activities were unproductive. These contacts were made on February 11, 12, and 20, 1975.

b6
b7C

On February 20, 1975, [redacted] Stardust Hotel and Casino, advised SA [redacted] that ROSENTHAL had placed him on a 6:00 PM to 2:00 AM shift [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted]
On April 15, 1975, SAS [redacted] and [redacted] interview FRANK ROSENTHAL at the Stardust Hotel-Casino; however, no information of pertinence was discussed. The interview was based on a chance meeting.

On 8/20/75, [REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] of the Chicago Division wherein the source had recently been in contact with the source's Las Vegas friends. A discussion followed wherein ANTHONY SPILOTRO and "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL stated that SPILOTRO has only one job now and that is to keep ROSENTHAL under control. This source continued that ROSENTHAL is now doing what is expected of him and no supplier of any importance sells to any of the casinos without some "kickback" arrangement. The Riviera Casino now appears to be under control of ROSENTHAL as it operates the same way (this has not been substantiated from other sources).

The Chicago source stated further that all of the suppliers are going to have to come up with a good cover-up for this kickback arrangement. SPILOTRO, himself, leaves no doubt with anyone he talks to that he is "the guy in control." SPILOTRO is the top ranking Chicago LCN representative in the Las Vegas, Nevada, area, and according to the source, even [redacted] takes orders from him. This source also stated he heard SPILOTRO now arranges for all of the "scam monies" to be transported from Las Vegas to Chicago. According to this source, [redacted] while in Las Vegas, still stays at the Riviera Hotel and Casino and when in Chicago has rooms at the Astor Towers.

[redacted] related that SPILOTRO has expressed concern over the indictment involving ROSENTHAL [redacted]

On August 20, 1975, the above information was furnished to Chief Attorney RICHARD P. CRANE, Jr., Strike Force Attorney, Los Angeles, California.

On September 9, 1975, an article appeared in the "Review Journal", a Las Vegas, Nevada, daily newspaper wherein Clark County Liquor, Gaming, and Licensing Board Member ROBERT BROADBENT had related that he was unhappy with the information provided by an Argent Corporation lawyer as to what the actual position and job of FRANK "LEFTY" ROSENTHAL performs for Argent.

According to BROADBENT, an article had appeared in the June 9, 1975, issue of Newsweek, a weekly national magazine, wherein ROSENTHAL had been quoted as saying "he doled out the policy at Argent Corporation." ROSENTHAL has applied for the state, county, and city licensing but has not as yet been approved.

The article continued that ROSENTHAL's attorney had furnished a letter that ROSENTHAL's position was to "recommend policy to the Board of Directors of Argent Corporation", the [Redacted] The attorney's letter continued that "Mr. Rosenthal is neither an officer nor a member of the Board of Directors of the Argent Corporation or any of its affiliates.

ROSENTHAL's application for licensing as a key employee in the gaming industry indicated his title was "Director of Nevada operations" and "Special Consultant to Chairman of the Board."

b6
b7C

LV 183-40

The article continued that ROBERT BROADBENT was unsatisfied with this letter and it was still unclear as to ROSENTHAL's power and responsibilities for Argent Corporation.

Subsequently an article appearing in the Las Vegas Sun, a Las Vegas, Nevada, daily newspaper dated September 13, 1975, Clark County Commissioner ROBERT BROADBENT, who is also a member of the County Liquor and Licensing Board, alleged that Argent Corporation officials tried to "twist his arm" to sign a press release which in effect said 'I would keep my mouth shut' concerning the investigation of ROSENTHAL's application for a gaming license.

ROSENTHAL in turn called BROADBENT's insinuations as "totally incorrect" and added that the Commissioner was a pathological liar.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date 9/12/75

On September 4, 1975, FRANK LARRY ROSENTHAL was met by chance at the Stardust Hotel-Casino, at which time he related the following:

The recent article which appeared in "Business Week" recently wherein he was quoted as saying that he makes all policy decisions for the Argent Corporation, which he stated was the holding company for the Stardust, Hacienda, Fremont, and Marina Casinos in Las Vegas, Nevada, was a misquote. He stated he made no statement that he, ROSENTHAL, makes all policy decisions for Argent Corporation, rather he told the reporter for "Business Week" that he, ROSENTHAL, advises on all decisions made by the board for Argent, which is headed up by ALLEN ROBERT GLICK.

He stated it was his opinion that because of the present political climate in the Las Vegas area, various individuals were attempting to use his name for their own publicity purposes.

He further stated that he was waiting for a decision by the U. S. Government concerning the two Federal gambling indictments outstanding against him before he would proceed to attempt to become licensed by either the State of Nevada or local Clark County authorities.

DE FEO, Los Angeles, or his representative to make a determination of whether or not any additional investigation including the interviewing of various individuals is warranted in this matter. It is to be noted that at the last contact with Chief Strike Force Attorney RICHARD P. CRANE, Jr., prior to his leaving government service, he advised that it did not appear that there is sufficient information that has been developed indicating that there is a violation under the RICO statute.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

The investigative period in this report is extensive, however, the Bureau and the Strike Force, Los Angeles, has been apprised of current developments.

A considerable amount of investigation conducted in this matter has already been reported in the report of SA [redacted] dated 2/13/76 at Las Vegas, Nevada, entitled, "ANTHONY JOHN SPILOTRO, AR, OO: LAS VEGAS," Bureau file 92-13802, Las Vegas file 92-3466 and is not being re-stated in this report.

and [redacted] mentioned the "families" to the TE and the TE stated that one was the "Chicago family" and the other was the "New York Family" but the TE could not recall the third family mentioned [redacted]. According to this TE, [redacted] had indicated that "Lefty" (FRANK LARRY ROSENTHAL) had become so arrogant that he would "fall from power" and it was [redacted] opinion that "Lefty" would fall within a year because "Lefty" was making numerous mistakes and stepping on the wrong person's feet.

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] in September, 1975, that numerous "Strip" casino operations are extremely upset regarding the activities of [redacted] [redacted] FRANK ROSENTHAL for various actions taken under the Agent's Corporation concerning bad publicity. This PC stated further that ROSENTHAL's name should be "CHARLIE MC GARTHY" because someone is behind the scenes in the activities of [redacted] ROSENTHAL and is calling all the shots on policy. In addition, this PC stated that ROSENTHAL may be in trouble because of the publicity he caused in his fight with Clark County [redacted]

ROSENTHAL refused to close down betting action of five football games because ROSENTHAL felt the "numbers" were right and the sports book could win the bets by taking all the action, ROSENTHAL lost four of the five games.

[redacted] advised [redacted] of the Chicago Division on 12/12/75, that ROSENTHAL is concerned with the fact that the Nevada Gaming Commission is serious in an attempt to drive ROSENTHAL out of the Argent Corporation. Apparently various inquiries have tied ROSENTHAL to "Mafia" characters over a period of years and ROSENTHAL is worried about how the Commission intends to use this information.

ROSENTHAL, according to this TE is useful to the "Chicago people" but if he draws any heat, ROSENTHAL can be replaced. ROSENTHAL is known to be close to ANTHONY SPILOTRO and other Chicago Hoodlums.

The recent murders of MARTY BUCCIERI (EDWARD BUCCIERI) and TAMARA RAND have not helped ROSENTHAL's position.

This Chicago TE continued that if there is a Grand Jury probe into [redacted] relationship with BUCCIERI and RAND; if [redacted] apparent control by ROSENTHAL, SPILOTRO and other Chicago hoodlums is looked into; the news media will draw attention to the entire operation and this specifically is what the Chicago LCN does not want, changes will be made and SPILOTRO (ANTHONY)SPILOTRO, Chicago's watchdog, will be criticized for letting things get out of control. In addition, [redacted] [redacted] requested any information wherein ROSENTHAL could be questioned by the Board concerning certain activites in which ROSENTHAL has been involved while in Las Vegas, Nevada. Thereafter, constant contact was maintained with [redacted] and a large amount of information furnished by the Chicago and Las Vegas Offices was furnished him. Some of this information was documented and first approved by Acting Strike Force Attorney JAMES DUFF, Los Angeles Strike Force, prior to being furnished [redacted]

On 1/16/76, the Nevada Gaming Control Board voted unanimously to deny ROSENTHAL to be licensed as a key employee for Argent Corporation. Thereafter, on 1/22/76, the Nevada Gaming Commission voted unanimously to deny ROSENTHAL's application.

On 1/17/76, [redacted] advised that it appeared highly likely to him that ROSENTHAL may have obtained a one year probationary key employee license if the information furnished to him by the FBI had not been used in [redacted] questioning of ROSENTHAL at ROSENTHAL's appearance before the Nevada Gaming Control Board on 1/16/76. It was especially detrimental to ROSENTHAL's position concerning information regarding SPILOTRO and other members of organized crime and ROSENTHAL became so highly incensed at [redacted] questions that he requested 20 minutes to sum up his, ROSENTHAL's, position at the end of the hearing. ROSENTHAL was allowed the 20 minute summation, at which time he began talking about "organized crime" and entered into a tirade on the vilification of the FBI [redacted]. It was ROSENTHAL's position that everyone furnishing testimony against ROSENTHAL was a "liar". [redacted] stated it was his opinion that the Board Voted unanimously to turn ROSENTHAL's application down because ROSENTHAL was willing to blame everyone but himself for his problems with the law.

DETAILS:

At Las Vegas, Nevada

The Las Vegas Sun, a Las Vegas, Nevada, daily newspaper, carried an article in September 13, 1975, wherein Clark County Commissioner ROBERT BROADBENT had publicly stated that Argent Corporation officials had "tried to twist his arm to sign a press release which in effect said, "I would keep my mouth shut," concerning investigation of FRANK ROSENTHAL's application for a gaming license.

The article continued that FRANK ROSENTHAL called BROADBENT's insinuations "totally incorrect" and added that the commissioner was a "Pathological Liar" if he was making such statements.

The article related that both ROSENTHAL and BROADBENT had reportedly met face to face at the Stardust Hotel after which BROADBENT issued statements at a press conference. All of BROADBENT's statements were later denied by ROSENTHAL in a telephone interview.

The apparent problem was caused by questions from BROADBENT at a meeting a month before wherein the Clark County Liquor and Gaming Board met concerning ROSENTHAL's licensing as a key employee for Argent Corporation.

PAUL PRICE, a columnist for the Las Vegas Sun, Las Vegas daily newspaper wrote an article concerning the Clark County Commissioner BROADBENT and FRANK ROSENTHAL "lively little war". PRICE in his column indicated that commissioner BROADBENT was choosing to ignore the Nevada Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Commission concerning the State regulatory bodies supervising gaming in the state and the questions as to why Commissioner BROADBENT targeted FRANK ROSENTHAL was asked.

An article appearing in the Review Journal, a Las Vegas daily newspaper again carried basically the same information regarding Commissioner ROBERT BROADBENT who is a member of the Clark County Liquor and Gaming Licensing Board and ROSENTHAL's arguments. In addition, ROSENTHAL's exact position with Argent Corporation was being questioned not only as to his title but as to his actual authority.

On September 30, 1975, FRANK ROSENTHAL advised SA [redacted] that he had closed down the sports book at Fremont Hotel because it was not making any money for Argent Corporation. ROSENTHAL indicated further that the sports book at the Stardust Hotel is a "loser" and it is possible that he, ROSENTHAL, will close this down. ROSENTHAL stated that he was presently enlarging the race book at the Stardust Hotel and stated that this operation, the race book, was making all the money for Argent Corporation. ROSENTHAL stated that in his opinion the reason for the sports book losing money was that everyone betting with the Stardust Sports Book had to go on record with the sports book, place a signature on a card and all bets had to be properly recorded and therefore, legitimate bets. ROSENTHAL indicated further that the reason "wise guys" bettors were not betting into the Stardust Sports Book was because they had access to so many illegal sports books in the Las Vegas area.

It was determined from the Nevada Gaming Commission that this governing body had approved the Alkath Corporation as the holding company owning 100 percent of Argent stock which is the operating company for the Stardust, Hacienda and Fremont Hotels-Casinos which also operates the casino at the Marina Hotel-Casino. LV 183-40

On October 9, 1975, it was determined that the Stardust Hotel-Casino Sports Book, under the direct control of FRANK ROSENTHAL, had closed down all telephone service to the Stardust Sports Book on that date. ROSENTHAL had indicated that because of the large amount of betting taking place with cash customers, ROSENTHAL did not feel the need for the telephone business. A monthly magazine "Overdrive" for November, 1975, an article appeared regarding [redacted] wherein the fact that the Teamsters Union, Central States, Southeast and Southwest areas Pension Fund was the source of some ninety million dollars that [redacted] had borrowed to buy his properties in the Nevada Gaming Industry. The article stated, concerning [redacted] that "He is owned, and I mean, O-W-N-E-D, lock stock and barrel, body and soul" by organized crime.

The article continued that the Marina Hotel and Casino had been financed by a 13 million dollar loan of the Teamsters Union Fund, however, this loan has not been disclosed in any public records. Of the 260 million dollars which the Teamsters Pension Fund has currently loaned out or committed to the Nevada Gaming Industry, [redacted] is personally connected with loans amounting to 111 million dollars. [redacted] in addition has loans outside of the State of Nevada obtained from the Teamsters Union Pension Fund bringing his total monies owed to the fund to 160 million dollars.

b6
b7C

The article continued with information regarding FRANK ROSENTHAL, ANTHONY "Fat Tony" SALERNO, MEYER LANSKY. The close relationship between ROSENTHAL and ANTHONY SPILOTRO who is reportedly number four man in the Chicago crime syndicate. SPILOTRO reportedly is based in Las Vegas, Nevada, because his major assignment is to watch over the Chicago Syndicate's Las Vegas investments and ROSENTHAL and SPILOTRO maintain daily contact via telephone calls.

The article continued that GLICK was discharged from the U. S. Army in 1969 and, thereafter, was employed by the American Housing Guild, a San Diego, California, developer. GLICK then joined the real estate firm of the Saratoga Development Corporation, San Diego, California.

The article had then followed GLICK's purchasing various hotel-casino properties in the Las Vegas, Nevada, area. The article stated further that the Hacienda Hotel-Casino in Las Vegas had reported increasing losses during GLICK's tenure.

An article appearing in the "Las Vegas Sun, a Las Vegas daily newspaper" in an article dated November 6, 1975, indicated that a law suit had been filed in Federal Court in San Diego, California. This law suit was based upon the petition [redacted] [redacted] another couple are named in a law suit by Citizens Financial Corporation of Ohio. This law suit is in the amount of three million dollars.

An article appearing in "Las Vegas Review Journal," a Las Vegas daily newspaper dated November 16, 1975, carried the story concerning Mrs. TAMERA RAND who was shot five times and killed in San Diego, California.

[redacted]
An article appearing in the "Las Vegas Sun," reflected that a motion for a protective order was denied in U. S. Magistrate's Court in Las Vegas, Nevada, to ALLEN R. GLICK, one of several defendants in a three million dollar suit by the Citizens Financial Corporation of Ohio.

An article appearing in the "Las Vegas Sun" dated November 21, 1975, related the story concerning the Nevada Gaming Commission issuing a complaint against ALLEN R. GLICK charging GLICK had obtained an illegal $500,000 loan to transfer his casino lease at the Marina Hotel in Las Vegas to ROBERT and NICK LATTANZIO, both of Fresno, California. Both of these individuals were denied a Nevada State gambling license. [redacted] testified they were coaxed into making a $500,000 loan during the negotiations to lease the casino.

[redacted] FRANK ROSENTHAL exercises complete control over the hiring of the employees at the Stardust Hotel and information has been developed that [redacted] may be serving as a contact between ROSENTHAL and ANTHONY JOHN SPILOTRO. [redacted]

Another individual developed as a possible contact or go between, between ROSENTHAL and SPILOTRO is [redacted] an executive at the Stardust Hotel and is reportedly ROSENTHAL's [redacted] directly involved in ROSENTHAL's every day business.

b6
b7C

An article appearing in the "Las Vegas Sun", dated December 20, 1975, related that the possible attachment of ALLEN R. GLICK's Alkath Corporation stock by the Citizens Financial Corporation was argued before U. S. Magistrate JOSEPH L. WARD in Las Vegas, Nevada. Alkath Corporation is the parent corporation of Argent Corporation wherein [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] related that Alkath stock has "special value". Spokesmen [redacted] have claimed that the Alkath Corporation is worth around 150 million dollars and should not be attached in a law suit involving only three million dollars.

[redacted] the Citizens Financial Corporation of Ohio took the position that Alkath stock "has no value". [redacted] claimed that the long term debt of Argent Corporation was 116 million dollars. This matter is still pending in the courts.

On January 16, 1976, [redacted]
[redacted] Nevada Gaming Commission, Las Vegas, Nevada, advised as follows:

Regarding the Gaming Control Board's hearing on the licensing of FRANK LARRY ROSENTHAL wherein the proceedings began at 4:30 PM on Wednesday, January 14, 1976, in Carson City, Nevada, there were [redacted]

[redacted] in attendance at the Carson City, Nevada, hearing. In addition, a J. HICKS, Deputy Attorney General and MIKE SLOAN, Deputy Attorney General were in attendance as attorneys for the board.

b6

[redacted] stated that FRANK LARRY ROSENTHAL had witnesses appear on his behalf who were as follows:
[redacted]

b6

b6

LV 183-40

FRANK L. ROSENTHAL.

At the conclusion of ROSENTHAL's testimony, he requested the board grant him 20 minutes in order that he could explain his position.

At the end of the hearing and prior to voting, ROSENTHAL was allowed 20 minutes. ROSENTHAL then entered into a tirade against local police officers and the FBI and at one point made a statement that in Miami,

LV 183-40

Florida, around 1960, he was pulled over by two local police officers followed by another vehicle which was later determined by ROSENTHAL to contain two FBI Agents. After ROSENTHAL accepted the driving violation by the local police and the local police car left, "the remaining cop car which I described to you as a Bureau car, they didn't, and they were making gestures, laughing and had a few words to say. This was at night time and it was on -- it was not on a -- it wasn't heavily trafficked, kind of quiet."

ROSENTHAL continued his testimony, which was under oath, and stated "they didn't come to me, I walked back to them and we had a few words. I reminded them about some of the members of their family, kind of a nasty thing, back and forth. With that they got out of the car. One was out and one was in. The one was in, got out, and they pushed me off, physically pushed me off to the side, and the one agent said, "We finally got you. We are going to give you the beating of your life, you son of a bitch."

"And I was already pushed off. They tried to get me a little further into the bushes. There was no contest. They were two big agents, they were armed, and I wasn't that big."

"With that, another car pulled up very quickly, and two fellows jumped out of the car, and one of them was ANTHONY SPILOTRO, and he wasn't armed, and there were just a couple of words went back and forth, just a couple, very, very few. He is about five foot two or five foot three, and they got back in their car, and as they went back in their car we kind of changed the momentum a little bit. The conversation I am speaking about. That's one incident."

ROSENTHAL then continued to relate his arrest when he was involved in the Multiple Sports and News business. This arrest was by the FBI.

ROSENTHAL continued in his testimony [redacted] used the word "credibility." That's very good, and that's one of the points I was on. What about the lack of credibility? Forget about FRANK ROSENTHAL for a minute. MARTIN LUTHER KING, new disclosure, certainly I don't put myself in his category. Are they all to be torn aside, and we say, no, that's not true and that's not true?"

b6
b7C

LV 183-40

"J. EDGAR HOOVER and CIA's and San Diego riots established by the very people that have supported some of the information that you have cast on my reputation, and so [redacted] mentions the words "credibility." I know the credibility. I feel that we are very near a police state in this country, and without the freedom of the press and the medias it could have went the other way. It's very, very possible, and [redacted] please don't take the attitude that what has happened to FRANK ROSENTHAL can never happen [redacted] because you'd be mistaken."

b6

"Just you dare vote for FRANK ROSENTHAL, or something similar to that, and you might, it's very possible that you might come under the threat that I have lived over for approximately fifteen, sixteen years, and don't take the attitude that what happened to my children, my wife, can't happen to yours, that they won't do it to yours because you are upright, and so forth."

ROSENTHAL continued, "There was one other arrest you mentioned for the record that took place in Las Vegas here, since I have been living in this community, and that was conducted by the FBI. It was the Rose Bowl incident. I don't know if I have discussed it with the Chairman [redacted] I have with you. I was on an allegation that there was some intrastate gaming information going back and forth. An indictment was received or handed down. There was reason to believe that there was a crime being committed. Certainly not a heinous crime, by any standards, and the arrest warrants were given to the agents of the FBI, local division, and I was arrested at the Rose Bowl working physically in the Rose Bowl, and included with the arrest warrant, which I never understood to this day, there was also a search warrant, 4972 Vegas Valley Drive, which was my home. I was under physical arrest, in handcuffs.

b6
b7C

LV 183-40

The agents were all there. Shotguns, pistols. They had the whole thing for gaming. They advised me that there was a warrant, a search warrant, a legal one for the first time, but would I please call my wife and tell her that the men are on their way and let them in."

"I said, "I appreciate that." I dialed my number immediately. I got my wife after about ten or fifteen rings, and I got her in a hysterical voice. They were already there. There was no knocking, there wasn't a nothing, it was just a breaking and entering, busting right through. There were two people in the home, [redacted] my wife and an infant of about six months."

b6
b7C

"Six armed agents on a gaming charge, armed, knowing that FRANK ROSENTHAL was in the Rose Bowl, couldn't be in the house, can't be in two places; six armed with guns out from all sides broke the door down to apprehend my wife and a six-months-old infant."

"One of them knocked over my son, not deliberately that I can tell, and he hit a sliding window. You shake your head affirmatively with me like you are in sympathy with me. I appreciate that."

"And my son was doctored. He had to go to the doctor for that. So I speak to [redacted] the Board, [redacted] We speak about credibility and what's right and what's wrong, and, Mr. Chairman, you have known me from the time I have come to this industry, and Board Member [redacted] knows me, I think about the same time, and [redacted] much less. You have known my word to be good. I have been straightforward with you. I apologize for some of the embarrassment I have brought upon myself, my family, my employer, the Board and the industry. I think it's unfortunate, but I want you to consider, I am asking you to consider three things: my past, my record in the industry, and my intentions in the future; and I ask you to consider my family as I would yours."

b6
b7C

"I must state for the record, and I only say this to you Mr. Chairman, because not as one of being paranoid, I am not paranoid. I'm upset, but I'm here before this Board, as [redacted] has indicated. He suggests that it takes some courage, but [redacted] has done a pretty good job on me, I think. Actually we have a difference of opinion. I know you to be a fair and open minded man. I know [redacted] to be the same. I wouldn't infer that [redacted] is not, but I can infer, just as he has done, that I was told by rumors that [redacted] he's got you before you ever go go in there. I only mention that because there isn't one chance in one billion based on [redacted] looking at me as I look at you, and I know you read me well, and if I turn my head away from you, I'm lost with you, and the same applies to me, but [redacted] [redacted] is a member of this Board, speaks with a forked tongue to me. He admires me for my family, my illness; he looks at me and he laughs at me, and I resent that."

b6

"I have given you the best I have. I have given [redacted] the best I have, and my family, and I remind you that no one can convince me, not that someone has tried, you can be sure that when you go this way that you will not hear one word from FRANK ROSENTHAL regarding no one could be more -- the industry knows about your integrity, Mr. Chairman, [redacted] is a Johnny-come-lately as far as the industry, but I am sure he wouldn't be here or the Governor wouldn't appoint him unless he was beyond any reproach; but he will not allow me the same consideration, the same thoughts that I say to him, and I heard that from people that I consider to be reliable, that [redacted] are open minded. and they will call them the way they see them, and [redacted] already got you, and I don't like being a part of that society."

b6

Thereafter, [redacted] was called as a witness on the behalf of ROSENTHAL. [redacted] is employed at the Argent Corporation [redacted]

b6
b7C

At the conclusion, [redacted] and [redacted] all voted to deny the gaming application submitted by ROSENTHAL through counsel, to the Nevada Gaming Control Board.

b6
b7C

LV 183-40

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised further that on January 22, 1976, the Nevada Gaming Commission in Carson City, Nevada, in which all five members were in attendance, voted unanimously to deny ROSENTHAL's application as a licensed key employee for the Argent Corporation.

On February 4, 1976, [redacted] advised he understood FRANK LARRY ROSENTHAL would, through the courts, appeal the decision of his licensing denial by the State of Nevada.

On 4/26/76, [REDACTED] Member, Nevada Gaming Control Board (NGCB) confidentially advised SA [REDACTED] as follows:

[REDACTED] a prominent Las Vegas Criminal Attorney was recently given a show-cause hearing before the Nevada Gaming Commission (NGC) as to why he, [REDACTED] should be allowed to continue to practice before the NGCB and the NGC. This show-cause hearing was caused by the fact that both NGC and NGCB members felt that [REDACTED] affidavit furnished to the state of North Carolina in June, 1975, for the restoration of FRANK LARRY ROSENTHAL's civil rights inferred, that ROSENTHAL was of such prominence in the Nevada Gaming Industry that both the NGC and the NGCB was given a license to operate in the state of Nevada. This was not true. The NGC questioned [REDACTED] intent as to the drafting of the affidavit and [REDACTED] thereafter, chose the following method of proving to the Commission that he did not intend to infer that ROSENTHAL had been granted a license in the Gaming Industry. [REDACTED] submitted to a polygraph examination conducted by [REDACTED] the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, which [REDACTED] reportedly passed. [REDACTED] chose [REDACTED] because he felt [REDACTED] would be acceptable to the NGC, inasmuch as the Commission said [REDACTED] would submit to a polygraph examination [REDACTED] prior to the issuance of [REDACTED] license to operate gambling establishment in the state of Nevada.

[REDACTED] had a linguistics professor from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, give a two hour dissertation concerning the wordage used [REDACTED] in the affidavit and the professor's conclusion that no one could possibly construe the verbiage in the affidavit as to infer ROSENTHAL's position as related above.

PC advised that [redacted] was recently given a testimonial dinner in his honor by Argent Corporation at the Stardust Hotel and Casino, Las Vegas. [redacted] who has for a long time been employed in various hotels in the Nevada Gaming Industry as an auditor and comptroller has never actually been of any stature of the Gaming Industry. Lieutenant Governor ROBERT ROSE and a number of the NGCB members, together with Clark County Board members and Las Vegas City Commission members were in attendance. FRANK ROSENTHAL was also in attendance and appeared to be in charge of the testimonial. Almost without exception invited guests did not know [redacted] or why the testimonial was given for him. The PC was an invited guest.

The source indicated that in reality the testimonial was a "political splash" for the purpose of presenting the "new image" of Argent Corporation and that [redacted]

ROSENTHAL is currently employed as a "reporter" for the "Valley Times" daily newspaper, ROBERT BROWN editor. Numerous newspeople including HANK GREENSPUN, publisher of the "Las Vegas Sun" and numerous financial banking executives were in attendance.

At the conclusion of the "testimonial", ROSENTHAL had a two hour meeting [REDACTED] Argent; however, the purpose was unknown. The source indicated that it is his opinion that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

b6

[REDACTED] the Argent Corporation respectively are in extremely strong positions. [REDACTED] by LEFTY ROSENTHAL. [REDACTED]

The PC continued that [REDACTED]

On 5/14/76, [REDACTED] Nevada Gaming Control Board, [REDACTED] confidentially advised SA [REDACTED] that he was in attendance at the [REDACTED] testimonial and it was his opinion that it was strictly a political testimonial for the purpose of "cleaning up" Argent's image. [REDACTED] stated that ROSENTHAL was in attendance, but kept a low profile.

[redacted] added that inasmuch as ROSENTHAL is a bona fide newspaper reporter, he now has access to all the hotels and casinos in the state of Nevada, and can not be kept out of them by either the NGCB or the NGCC. [redacted] advised further that current inquiries are being conducted into the activities of SPILOTRO and ROSENTHAL.

made a very heavy bet on Houston and continued to bet Houston during the week up until game time. As a result of subject's heavy bets, by game time Houston was a 21 point favorite in the New Orleans area. It was noted that Oklahoma State beat Houston by a large margin.

The following Saturday, 10/4/69, and 10/18/69, subject again bet heavily on college games. On the 10/4/69 wagers by subject he bet six college games and lost five of the bets. In connection with his bets on 10/18/69, subject also lost the majority of his bets.

In view of subject's poor betting record on football, informant does not feel that subject is obtaining any good betting intelligence information and obviously any fixing of college football games does not involve the subject. Informant stated further that the gambling industry feels that subject's backers have told him to cease betting on football games and to pay full attention to operating his sports book in Las Vegas. Informant stated that over the previous two weekends subject had not been making any wagers on college football games to the informant's knowledge.

The following references pertain to a possible fix of Lafayette vs. Colgate Basketball Game, Hamilton, NY, 1/23/65. During an investigation of above, information was developed that Frank Rosenthal, nationally known handicapper, bookmaker and gambler, met with two unknown individuals on above date. During this meeting a discussion ensued which indicated the possibility this game might in some way be "fixed". It was reported that Lafayette College had two star players lost through eligibility requirements, but only a "select few" persons, including Rosenthal, would know about this particular game. It was believed there was a lack of information on injuries rather than an actual fix, which was the sort of deal Rosenthal would know about.

Enclosed for Las Vegas is a copy of the finding in fact and recommended order regarding ROSENTHAL's application for a horse owner's license in the State of Florida and a copy of Clark County, Nevada, Sheriff RALPH LAMB's affidavit submitted on behalf of ROSENTHAL.

ROSENTHAL was afforded a hearing on February 9, 1977, before a hearing officer regarding his application for licensing as a race horse owner in the State of Florida. On March 23, 1977, the hearing officer recommended that ROSENTHAL's application for an occupational license as a race horse owner in Florida be denied. The hearing officer found that ROSENTHAL failed to clearly show that he possessed the necessary qualifications as to integrity required by a licensee of the State of Florida.

[redacted] Florida
Department of Business Regulation, Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering, provided on April 18, 1977, the enclosed documents. [redacted] advised that as of April 18, 1977, ROSENTHAL had not filed a notice of appeal of the hearing officer's decision.
